Alma Mater

Our thoughts are held in loving thrall
To this, our honored Hall
Within these walls we've pondered o'er
The paths that lead to All.
The best that wisdom gives, we got;
The prize belongs to all.
Our loyal friendship's flower divine
That bides in Blue and Gold.

Then here's a rousing shout to her
And to her colors bold.
We'll e'er be true and loyal to
The noble Blue and Gold.

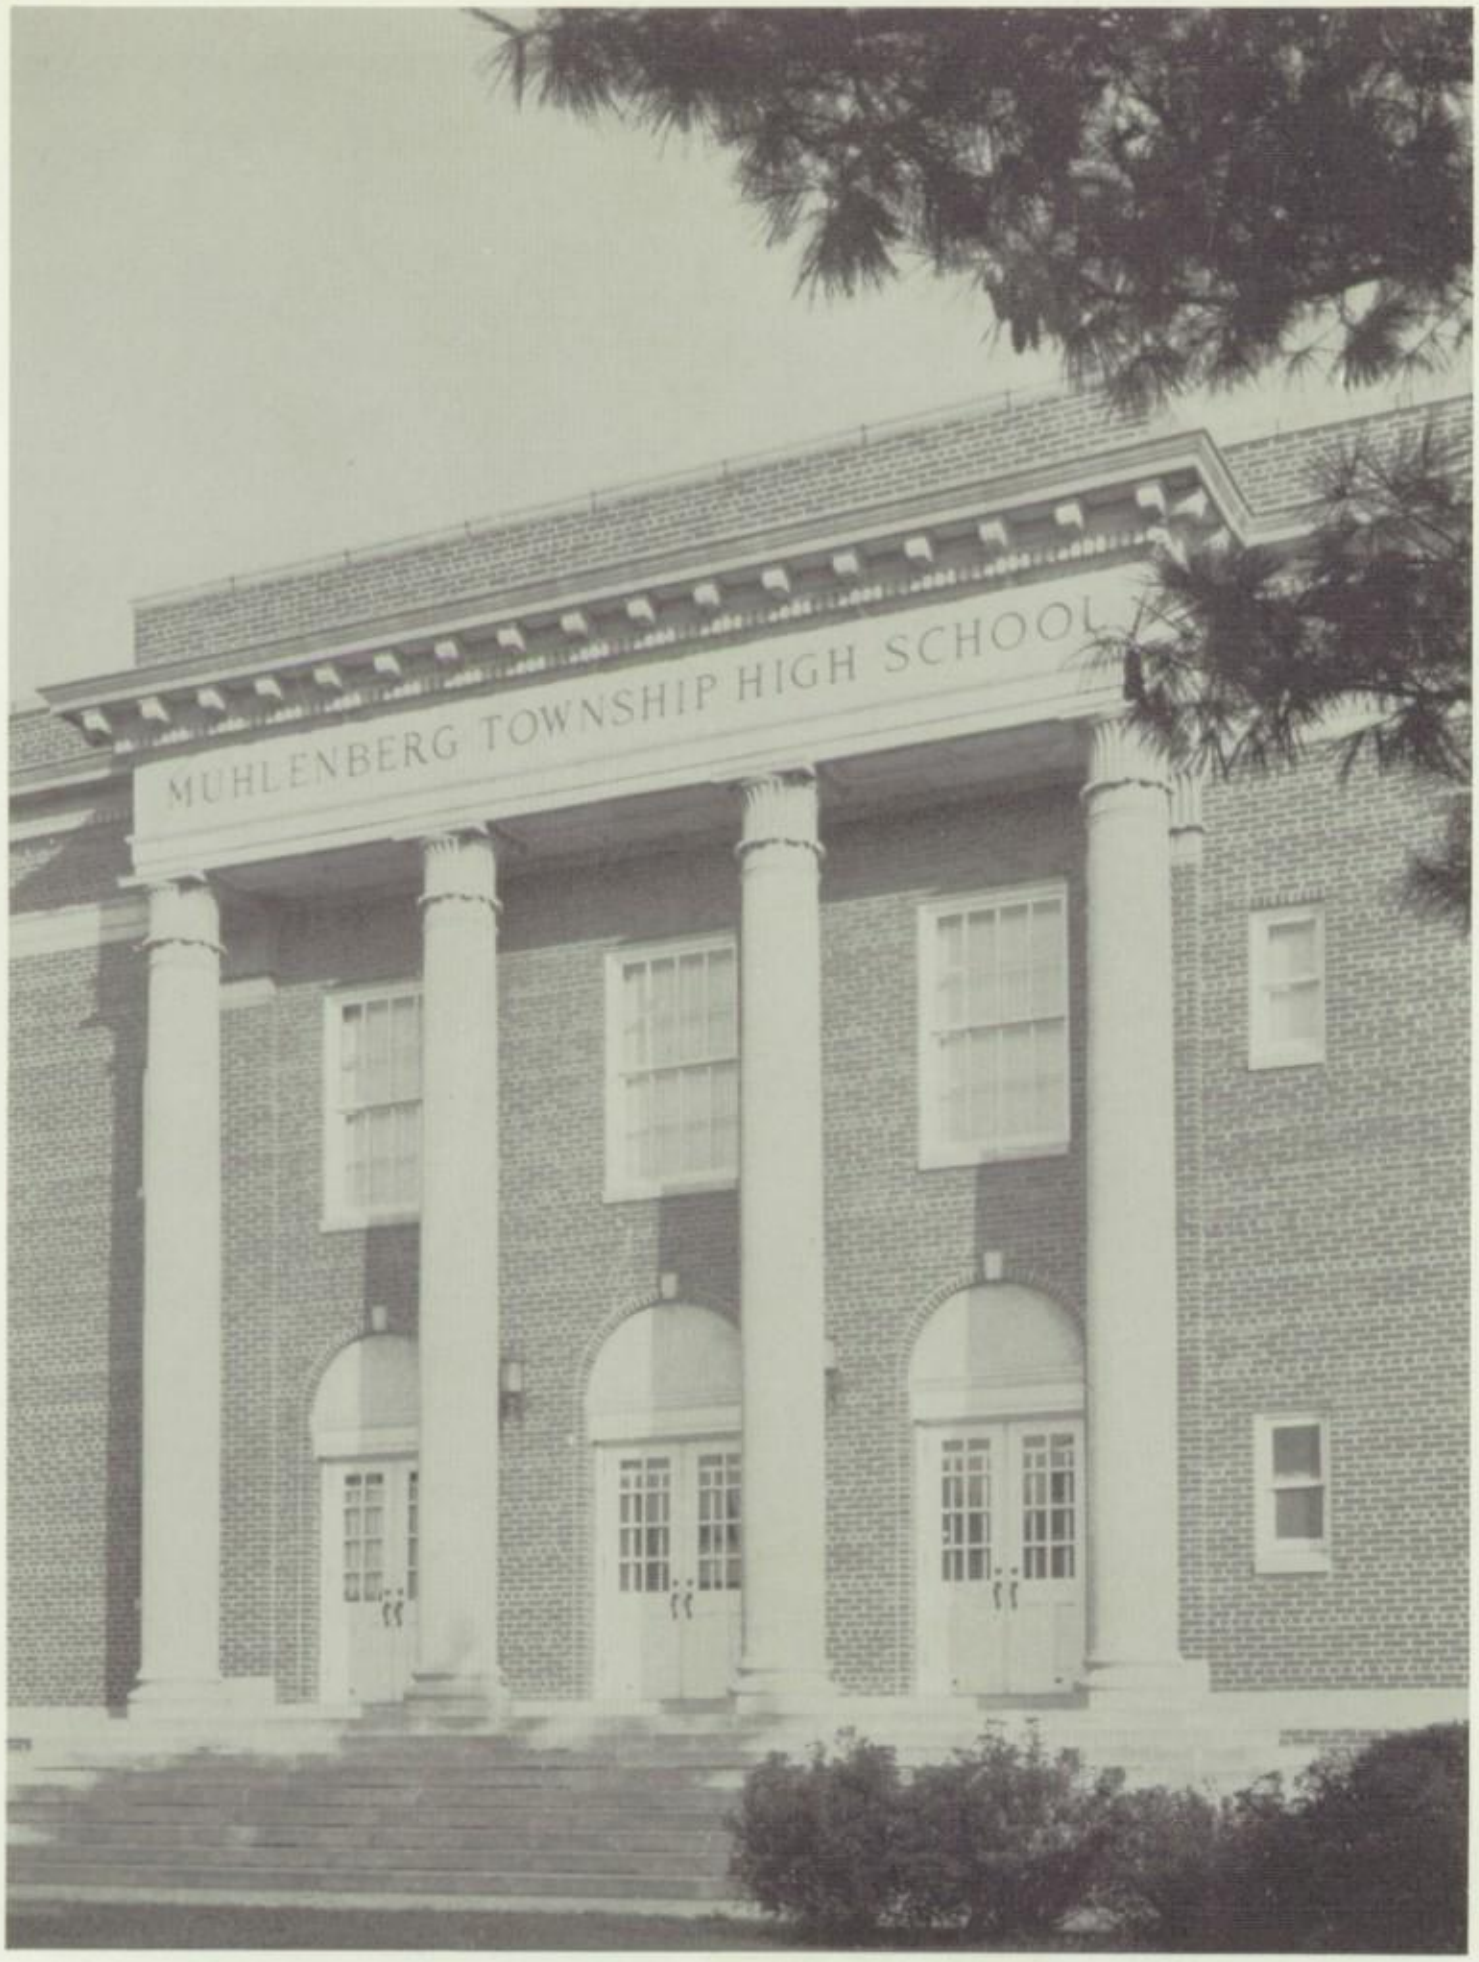
The name of Charles Dickens brings to mind some of the author's many famous writings. Among these are David Copperfield, Great Expectations, and A Christmas Carol to name a few.

As we of the senior class of Muhlenberg look back over our years spent here, we've experienced many things similar to those experienced in many of Dickens' wonderful stories.

The staff of the '59 Muhltohi has therefore chosen a theme based on the tales of Charles Dickens. It is the sincere hope of the staff that you, the owner of this book, will enjoy it to the fullest extent.



It seemed to speak to me and comfort me all the time.

SUPERINTENDENT

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends:

2281 years ago a man named Aristotle died. Aristotle inscribed his name indelibly on the pages of history. He was a teacher and philosopher. His students were eminently successful. Alexander the Great was his best known student. For almost a lifetime Aristotle was the toast of Athenian society. Near the end of his life, however, he was severely criticized by those who formerly praised him. He was condemned as godless and banished from his beloved Athens. What a sad ending to such a glorious life. Fame, honor and prestige were his. Student Alexander the Great gained the whole world through conquest. Aristotle must have shared in this success. But Aristotle's successes and triumphs were emptiness and, as Christ reminds us, "For what shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

Sincerely yours,
JOHN W. KHOURI

The "Soph Hop," our first class sponsored dance, was held in early spring and we selected an "Oriental theme" upon which to plan our decorations. We even had a geisha girl, a mannequin loaned to us by a Penn St. store, and a wishing well. Although it was not a booming financial success, many good times were had by all while while planning and staging it.

CLASS

Nancy, Patricia, and Dave.

For the first time this year, some members of our class joined what is "fondly" known as "dawn patrol" or more formally Mixed Chorus. Singing at church services and in assembly were experiences which made up for the early rising which was necessary to be at rehearsal before the fateful hour of 7:30 a.m.

Some of the male gender of our class decided to join Hi-Y and their initiation was a spectacle which all students enjoyed. To push a penny down the hall with their nose, or to do pushups in the middle of the corridor were common sights and all of them added to the fun.

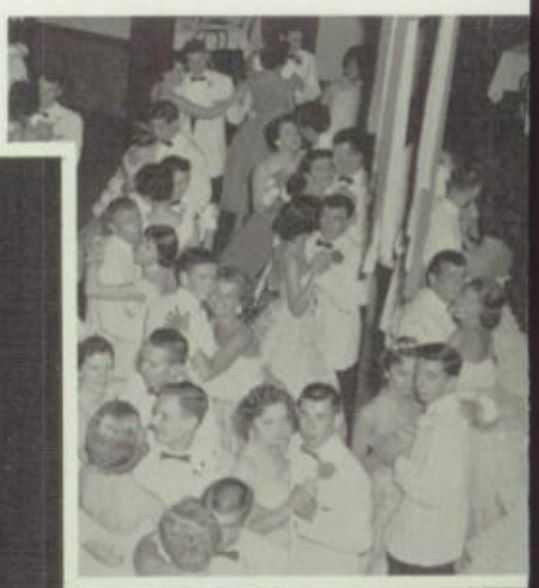
A Christmas Carol — DICKENS

THE JUNIOR AND

Just posing, I suppose!

Anybody for a spot of tea?



Shall we enter?

To be young again!

The flowers of the musical world.

But it's dark out there . . .

Which way to the elevator?

A night to remember.
